
CORPORATE GOVERNANCE: AUDIT COMMITTEE CHARTER

Composition of the Audit Committee

The full Board performs the function of an Audit Committee. At least one member is to have relevant qualifications and experience. From time to time, non-Board members may be invited to attend Board meetings when audit matters are being discussed, if it is considered appropriate.

Role of the Audit Committee

The role of the Audit Committee is to:

- (a) monitor and review the integrity of the financial reporting of the Company, reviewing significant financial reporting judgments;
- (b) review the Company's internal financial control system and, unless expressly addressed by the Board itself, risk management systems;
- (c) monitor, review and oversee the external audit function including matters concerning appointment and remuneration, independence and non-audit services;
- (d) monitor and review compliance with the Company's Code of Conduct; and
- (e) perform such other functions as assigned by law, the Company's Constitution, or the Board.

Operations

The Board meets as the Audit Committee at least half yearly, with further meetings on an as required basis. A separate independent Chairperson, other than the chair of the Board, may be elected to chair the meeting when the Board meets as the Audit Committee. Minutes of all meetings of the Audit Committee are to be kept. Audit Committee meetings will be governed by the same rules, as set out in the Company's Constitution as they apply to the meetings of the Board.

Authority and Resources

The Company is to provide the Audit Committee with sufficient resources to undertake its duties, including provision of educational information on accounting policies and other financial topics relevant to the Company, and such other relevant materials requested by the Audit Committee. The Audit Committee has rights of access to management and has the authority to seek explanations and additional information from the Company's external auditors, without management present, when required. The Audit Committee has the power to conduct or authorise investigations into any matters within the Audit Committee's scope of responsibilities. The Audit Committee has the authority, as it deems necessary or appropriate, to retain independent legal, accounting or other advisors. Representatives of the external auditor are expected to attend each meeting of the Audit Committee and at least once a year the Audit Committee shall meet with the external auditors without any management staff or executives present. The external auditor is required to attend the Annual General Meeting.

Reporting to the Board and Shareholders

To assist the Board to carry out its audit function, the Board should compile a report, at least annually, on the following matters:

- (a) assessment of whether external reporting is consistent with Audit Committee members' information and knowledge and is adequate for shareholder needs;
- (b) assessment of the management processes supporting external reporting;
- (c) recommendations for amending the Company's Auditor Selection, Appointment & Rotation Procedure of external audit engagement partners;
- (d) recommendations for the appointment or, if necessary, the removal of the external auditor;

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE: AUDIT COMMITTEE CHARTER

- (e) assessment of the performance and independence of the external auditors. Where the external auditor provides non-audit services, the report should state whether the Audit Committee is satisfied that provision of those services has not compromised the auditor's independence; and
- (f) the results of the Audit Committee's review of risk management and internal control systems.

The Chairperson of the Audit Committee, if appointed, is to be present at the annual general meeting to answer questions, through the Chairperson of the Board.

Responsibilities

Annual responsibilities of the Audit Committee are as set out in the Audit Committee Charter – Annual Action Points (attached).

Review

This Charter will be formally reviewed by the Board no less than every 3 years.

AUDITOR SELECTION, APPOINTMENT & ROTATION PROCEDURE

Responsibility

The Board is responsible for the initial appointment of the external auditor and the appointment of a new external auditor when any vacancy arises, as per the recommendations of the Audit Committee. Any appointment made by the Board must be ratified by shareholders at the Annual General Meeting of the Company.

Selection Criteria

Mandatory criteria

Candidates for the position of external auditor of the Company must be able to demonstrate complete independence from the Company and an ability to maintain independence through the engagement period. Further, the successful candidate must have arrangements in place for the rotation of the audit engagement partner on a regular basis.

Other criteria

Other than the mandatory criteria mentioned above, the Board may select an external auditor based on criteria relevant to the business of the Company such as experience in the industry in which the Company operates, references, cost and any other matters deemed relevant by the Board.

Performance Review

The Audit Committee will review the performance of the external auditor on an annual basis and make any recommendations to the Board.
